

Historic Logging Class – Cindi Stiles

Here are some suggestions to get you started thinking about your presentation. You can use anyone of these or research something you have an interest in. Anything is possible as long as it has something to do with the historic logging era. If you have any questions or want some help, call me at 715-499-0481 or email me at cydstil@newnorth.net

At the end of the first class, we will discuss topics and you will select a topic for a five minute presentation in the second class.

General questions:

What was the camp diet? Did food change with the seasons?

What was camp life like?

Was there interaction between camps and local communities?

Is there any evidence of camp being reoccupied, for instance by other companies, by homesteaders

What was the general camp design? Did it change with the different logging eras?

What type of preservation would you recommend for logging camps?

What modern towns started out a lumber company towns?
